IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PLATFORM PERMISSIONS

Most mobile platforms (iOS, Android, etc.) have defined certain types of device data that apps cannot access without your consent. These platforms have different permission systems for obtaining your consent. Android devices will notify you of the permissions that the Our app seeks before you first use the app, and your use of the app constitutes your consent. Sometimes these permissions require more explanation than the platforms themselves provide, and the permissions we request will change over time, so we have created these pages to serve as up-to-date resources for our users.

Android permissions:

When you plan to make an EMI payment using a nearby collection outlet, we auto-detect your location and suggest you the nearest outlet. This permission also enables us to know more about your popular hanging out areas and factor those in our algorithm.

SMS: If you allow us to access your SMS, we read your SMS to autofill and verify the OTP used to validate your mobile number when creating an account o - this provides you a seamless experience during that process. We also collect your SMS data to analyse the data around specific financial transactions for statistical analysis.

Phone: The app requires access to make phone calls so that you can make phone calls to our customer contact center directly through the app. This permission also enables us to understand more about your social interactions and factor that in our algorithms.

Photos/Media/Files: The libraries in the app use these permissions to make it easy for you to upload existing pictures from the gallery or save newly clicked photos for document submission.

Camera: This permission enables us to make it easy for you to click the picture of necessary documents for online submission.

Wi-Fi connection information: When you allow us the permission to detect your Wi-Fi connection, we optimize your experience based on the connection speed.
